New-Look Rebels Ready For 2011

The number of newcomers on the Ole Miss soccer team's roster this year is nearly equal to the number of returners – 12 returners and 11 newcomers. But second-year head coach Matthew Mott has big expectations for his team this year and has already seen the newcomers adjust well to college soccer.

"This is a different team than last year," Mott said. "We started at a higher level and the team has come back from the summer fit and committed. We brought in a number of new players and we are much deeper than we were last year. The girls are really working hard."

The team returns nine starters, including its two SEC honorees from a year ago in Alix Hildal and Mandy McCalla and its leading scorer in Dylan Jordan. In addition, the team returns senior goalkeeper Alley Ronaldi, who has posted 12 career shutouts and 109 career saves and four-year starter and a 2011 team captain in senior defender Meredith Snow.

The Rebels' roster boasts several newcomers who have the talent and skills to make an immediate impact at Ole Miss and in the SEC. Sophomore forward Rafaelle Souza has played in the FIFA U17 and U20 World Cups for Brazil, sophomore midfielder Emily Reid transfered from Oklahoma and freshman goalkeeper Kelly McCormick won five consecutive Surf Cup championships.

"We have six seniors and overall we are really balanced in the numbers of players in each class," Mott said. "The returners have made the newcomers feel comfortable this year. They know what to expect so we are at a better starting point."

The junior class

GOALKEEPERS

Two talented keepers will be vying for the starting spot this year in senior team captain Alley Ronaldi and freshman Kelly McCormick.

Ronaldi has played in 33 career games and has recorded 12 shutouts and 109 saves in three years while posting an impressive career GAA of 0.89. Battling Ronaldi will be McCormick, a native of Dana Point, Calif. She played club for the led the U.S. Youth U17 team to a National Championship in 2010.

"It's going to be a fierce battle in goal between Alley and Kelly," Mott said. "Both have come in and are in great shape and prepared. (Assistant coach/goalkeeper coach) Rob Thompson has done a good job training them. We are in a good spot in goal."

DEFENDERS

While the Rebel defense will have a new look this year, the team does return solid players in a backline that recorded six shutouts a year ago. Seniors Meredith Snow and Kendyl Mygatt, who each started all 20 games a year ago, will anchor the Ole Miss defense. Snow, a two-time team captain, is a four-year starter for Ole Miss and has started every game during her career at Ole Miss (61 games). Mygatt has started 30 career games and has played in 40.

Junior Chelsea Heimann, who played in 17 games with 12 starts on defense last year, and sophomore Maddie Cunningham, who saw action in 17 games and made four starts, will also be in the mix.

Junior Alix Hildal, who recorded six goals last year as a defender will move up top this season.

"Our defense is probably the position that has had the most changes since last season," Mott said. "We have Meredith and Kendyl back and they will be looked upon to lead us this year. We are bringing in a lot of new players on defense this year and there are a lot of people fighting for spots."

Among those newcomers looking for playing time on defense are junior transfer Emily Sinovich (UAB) and freshmen Virginia Seiler and Kim Duff.

MIDFIELD

The Ole Miss midfield returns the team's leading scorer from a year ago in senior Dylan Jordan and 2010 SEC All-Freshman team selection and the team's leader in assists, Mandy McCalla.

Jordan recorded seven goals and two assists while starting all 20 matches in 2010. McCalla earned SEC All-Freshman team accolades after recording four goals and a team leading six assists.

"Our midfield is a strength for us this year," Mott said. "Mandy is playing fantastic as is Dylan. Emily Reid is coming in this year after transferring from Oklahoma and we expect her to help us right away."

Also returning to the Ole Miss midfield is senior Jenna Strother, who started all 20 games last year, junior Abbie Curran, who started the first 13 matches in 2010 before suffering an injury, and redshirt junior Kelsey Breathitt, who started the first two games before missing the rest of the year with an injury.

In addition to Reid, who played in 21 games at Oklahoma last season, junior transfer Meghan O'Rourke, freshmen Kate Anderson and Mary Louise Clawson will battle for time.

FORWARD

The forwards will be one of the most exciting positions to watch this season. Junior Alix Hildal and sophomore Erin Emerson, who combined for nine goals last year, should be even more creative on the attacking end this season with the addition of sophomore transfer Rafaelle Souza from Salvador, Brazil.

"I'm most excited about the forwards this year," Mott said. "We moved Alix from defense to forward this year and she's come in sharp. By combining Alix with Rafaelle and Erin, we're going to have much more of a punch on the front line than we did a year ago."

Newcomers Margaret Thomas and Kristen McBrayer will look to break into the front line this year.

CAREER RECORD: 7-9-4 (3-5-3 SEC)
RECORD AT OLE MISS: 7-9-4 (3-5-3 SEC)

Matthew Mott, who enters his second year as head coach in 2011, was named the second women's soccer head coach in Ole Miss history on May 10, 2010.

During his first season with the Rebels, Mott led his program to a 7-9-4 overall record and a 3-5-3 mark in SEC play. During the season, Mott's team knocked off No. 25 Auburn on the road, 2-1, and recorded a 0-0 double overtime tie against No. 18 Georgia.

A pair of his players (Alix Hildal and Mandy McCalla) was named to the All-SEC Second Team and SEC All-Freshman Team, respectively, while Dylan Jordan and Taylor Cunningham (CoSIDA ESPN Academic All-District First Team and SEC Community Service Team) earned honors for their accolades off the field. In addition, three players also garnered player of the week honors from the SEC.

"I am thrilled to have the opportunity to come to Ole Miss and take over a great soccer program," Mott said after he was hired. "I would like to thank Pete Boone and Lynnette Johnson for giving me this opportunity. I'm really excited to be back in the SEC, and I am ready to get to Ole Miss and get started."

The top assistant coach at the University of Texas for the last four years, Mott helped the Longhorns to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back Sweet Sixteen berths in 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad rose as high as No. 1 in the national rankings. Working with the goalkeepers and defenders, Mott helped guide UT to a school record for lowest goals against average (0.64 in 2008) and several other defensive records during his tenure.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Mott assisted Karen Hoppa at Auburn from 1999-2005. He was promoted from assistant to assistant head coach to associate head coach during his time on the Plains and helped the Tigers to four straight NCAA Tournaments and four straight SEC West titles from 2001-04. He was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 when Auburn claimed the SEC overall championship. As Auburn's recruiting coordinator, Mott brought in six nationally ranked signing classes and helped develop several players to All-SEC and All-America honors.

The Norwood, N.Y., native served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Central Florida, for four years under Hoppa prior to his stint at Auburn. While there, the Golden Knights won three Trans Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships and earned an NCAA Tournament berth in 1998.

Before UCF, Mott was the head women's coach at Division III Hilbert College in Hamburg, N.Y., where he became the winningest coach in school history during his tenure from 1991-94. He was also the goalkeepers coach for the men's team at Hilbert during that time.

Mott obtained a bachelor's degree in general studies and a minor in criminal justice from UCF in 2000 and also earned an Associate of Science degree in 1994 from Erie Community College in Buffalo, N.Y. Before college, Mott spent four years in the U.S. Coast Guard where he played and coached with the Coast Guard's select team in Portsmouth, Va.

Mott holds a National "B" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation. In addition to his college coaching positions, he has served as the goalkeepers coach for the USYSA Region III Olympic Development Program team since 2003.

He is married to the former Jennifer Swartz. They have two sons, Dean and Will, and a daughter, Tacie.

BECKY FLETCHER

SECOND YEAR | ERSKINE COLLEGE | 1998

ASSISTANT COACH AT OLE MISS: 2010-PRESENT

Becky Fletcher enters her second year as an assistant coach at Ole Miss in 2011.

With the Rebels, Fletcher is the recruiting coordinator in addition to working with the midfielders and defenders. She is also in charge of equipment, is the academic and marketing liaison and organizes community service for the team.

During her first season with Ole Miss in 2010, she helped lead the Rebels to a 7-9-4 overall record and a 3-5-3 mark in SEC play. Defender Alix Hildal was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week after recording a hat trick against Vanderbilt, while midfielder Mandy McCalla, who led the team in assists with six, was named to the SEC All-Freshman team.

After two seasons as the head coach at Tennessee Tech, Fletcher was hired as an assistant coach for the Ole Miss soccer program on May 25, 2010.

"I'm very excited to be working with Becky again," Rebel head coach Matthew Mott said. "She is one of the top up-and-coming coaches in the country and fits in perfectly at Ole Miss. Her experience as a head coach and recruiter helps us attract some of the top players in the country."

In her two seasons as the head coach of the Golden Eagles, Fletcher led them to back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference tournaments after not having made an appearance since 2003. She also directed TTU to the 2009 OVC Tournament championship game, its first appearance since 2000.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Fletcher was an assistant alongside Mott at Auburn from 2003-08. She helped Karen Hoppa's team reach a number of achievements during her time on the Plains, including three SEC West titles, four trips to the NCAA Tournament and a record of 58-34-11 (.617).

"I am thrilled with the opportunity to not only return to the SEC, but also to rejoin Coach Mott as he leads Ole Miss Soccer to new heights," Fletcher said. "It is clear that Ole Miss is a special place with limitless potential. I cannot wait to build on the tradition of success at such a prestigious institution."

The Columbia, S.C., native started as an assistant at her alma mater, Erskine College (Due West, S.C.), in 1998 before spending three seasons as an assistant at Tennessee Tech. She went back to Erskine as the school's head coach for one year before joining the Auburn staff. She has also served as a member of the Olympic Development Program staff for Region III since 1997, helping develop some of the top soccer talent in the Southeast.

Fletcher holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Erskine College (1998) and a master's in health and physical education from Tennessee Technological University (2001).

ASSISTANT COACH
ROB THOMPSON

SECOND YEAR | LOCK HAVEN UNIVERSITY | 1995

ASSISTANT COACH AT OLE MISS: 2010-PRESENT

During 2010, Thompson helped Ole Miss to a 7-9-4 overall record and a 3-5-3 record in SEC play. His goalkeepers, Sarah Story and Alley Ronaldi, recorded a combined six shutouts on the year. In addition, Story set program records for saves in a game (17) and in a season (109).

"Rob is one of the top goalkeeper coaches in the country," said head coach Matthew Mott upon his hire. "His passion and intensity for soccer make him a great addition to the staff. The fact that Becky (Fletcher) and Rob both have experience in the SEC allow us to hit the ground running."

Thompson brings high-level experience in training goalkeepers to the Rebel program. Following a two-year hiatus from college coaching for family reasons, he came back to the SEC, where he was an assistant at Georgia from 2005-08.

"I am excited to get back to coaching high-level soccer in the SEC, and I'm excited to work with Matt and Becky and be part of a successful athletics department at Ole Miss," Thompson said.

While in Athens, he helped lead the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2003 and just their second appearance in the SEC Tournament championship game. Georgia went 40-19-4 during his three seasons, and he helped develop goalkeeper Michelle Betos into an SEC All-Freshman pick who would go on to rank among the all-time school and conference leaders in shutouts and saves.

Thompson was an assistant at Florida State for two seasons, where he helped the Seminoles reach back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, including the 2003 College Cup Semifinals. He trained goalkeeper Joy McKenzie to All-ACC and All-Region status, while she broke several school records along the way.

A native of Grimbsy, England, his extensive experience as a goalkeeper coach on the professional and collegiate levels also includes the WUSA's New York Power (2002-03), Adelphi University men (2001-02), the A-League's Long Island Rough Riders (1998-01) and Lock Haven University men and women (1995-98).

He has also been a member of the ODP Region III coaching staff since 2003.

Thompson holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Lock Haven University (Pa.), where he was a three-time all-conference and two-time all-region player in soccer. He is married to the former April Murphy of Tulsa, Okla., and the couple has a 2-year-old son, Michael.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

Entering the 2011 season, Ole Miss has appeared in 13 of the last 14 SEC Tournaments, including 13 straight from 1997-2009. The only league school to appear in more during that span is Florida who has appeared in each of the last 14 SEC Tournaments. The Rebels have made four semifinals appearances and played in the 1999 championship match against the Gators.

The top eight teams in the final regular-season standings advance to the tournament. The tournament's winner is granted an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament.

The SEC has hosted a postseason tournament every year since 1993. It returns for an eighth time to the Orange Beach Soccer Complex in Orange Beach, Ala., in 2011.

MAGNOLIA CUP

Ole Miss and Mississippi State form a geographical and conference rivalry in every sport. The two soccer programs have further enhanced the rivalry with the Magnolia Cup, which has been given to the winner of each match the Rebels and Bulldogs have played since 2003. The traveling trophy is up for grabs at each meeting, whether during the fall or the exhibition season in the spring.

Ole Miss has controlled the series in recent years, leading the all-time series 9-2-2 and are 8-1 in their last nine meetings against the Bulldogs and Ole Miss has outscored Mississippi State, 22-3 in those nine meetings. Most recently, Ole Miss secured a 2-0 win at Freedom Ridge Park in Ridgeland during the 2011 spring exhibition season.

In the inaugural battle for the Magnolia Cup on April 4, 2003, the Rebels took control of the prize with a 1-0 victory over the Bulldogs, off a Kelly Renie goal, in the first ever night game at MSU Soccer Field. Ole Miss maintained the Cup in fall 2003, and State captured the trophy for the first time in 2004 with a narrow 1-0 win in Starkville. After a draw in 2005, the Rebels regained the Cup with an impressive 2-0 victory in Starkville in 2006. The Rebels currently are in possession of the Magnolia Cup after a 2-0 win in March in Ridgeland.

2010 SEC REVIEW

SETTING THE STANDARD FOR COLLEGIATE SOCCER

The Southeastern Conference has continued its rise as one of the top conferences for women's soccer. SEC women's soccer will begin its 19th season in 2011 and is deeply rooted on the national scene of collegiate soccer.

• The 2010 women's soccer season reaffirmed the SEC's prominence in the country. Three teams from the SEC were invited to the NCAA Tournament. Auburn, Florida and South Carolina all made the 64-team field. The six teams combined for a record 2-2-1 with the Gamecocks advancing to the third round. The SEC now has a 51-10 (.452) NCAA Tournament record in 65 appearances.

• The SEC began a new television agreement with ESPN in 2009. This agreement has seen television coverage of SEC women's soccer increase 300 percent from the previous season. ESPNU, which is available in more than 73 million households, will televise four regular season matches in addition to the SEC Tournament championship match. Additionally, FOX, CSS and COX will combine to push the SEC's television appearances to more than 15 matches per year.

• Last season the SEC had 18 NSCAA All-South Region selections, seven Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week picks, four NSCAA All-Americans and three Hermann Trophy Watch List candidates.

REBEL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

OBJECTIVE:

The primary objective for the University of Mississippi Strength and Conditioning program is to help each athlete be the best they can be. In order to reach this goal, there are several components that must be addressed. There are general needs such as speed, power, agility and strength that must be met for each athlete. But in further development, functional training is used to meet the athlete's specific needs based on their sport and position. Lastly, there is a mental component that helps the athlete prepare for the demands that will be placed on them during competition.

Ole Miss athletes use a wide variety of training methods, from Olympic-style lifting, to high intensity machine training, to the use of chains, tires and sandbags, all combining together to help each athlete be their best.

With 10,000-square-foot weight rooms in the majestic Indoor Practice Facility and the Starnes Center, there are no greater facilities at which to train athletes. When entering the weight training areas, Ole Miss players are quickly reminded of the championship philosophy set forth by the Rebel strength staff. The IPF's weight room, which is entering its seventh year of existence, is enhanced with visual messages and houses state-of-the-art training equipment. Besides the hundreds of weights, the room also contains a variety of Hammer Strength machines, Life Fitness cardiovascular machines and a fully-stocked nutrition counter.

With the IPF's full-sized indoor practice field in addition to the soccer field, the Rebels' extensive workouts touch on every area of fitness and conditioning and prepare their bodies fully for intense SEC battles.

Assistant strength coach Randy Dorvin is in his first season working with the soccer team after he arrived in Oxford in the summer of 2011.

As a staff we are always trying to improve our program to give our student-athletes an edge in performance. WE'RE EITHER GETTING BETTER OR GETTING WORSE, WE NEVER STAY THE SAME.

OLE MISS SPORTS MEDICINE

Prevention. Treatment. Rehabilitation. Education. Those are the four primary phases of athletic training, and the Ole Miss Sports Medicine staff strives to fulfill all four areas when working with the student-athletes on a daily basis.

"Our Athletic Trainers are allied healthcare professionals and we strive to provide quality healthcare based on the latest in medical research," said Shannon Singletary, Senior Associate Athletics Director for Sports Medicine/Strength & Conditioning. "By doing this we hope to not only provide our athletes with a better chance of winning on the field, but also give them an opportunity to lead a healthy lifestyle."

Led by a medical director and a full-time director of musculoskeletal medicine, Ole Miss student-athletes are offered the best care possible by the Sports Medicine staff, which includes 10 full-time athletic trainers, three graduate assistants and several student assistants. The staff serves the student-athletes nearly around-the-clock and at numerous facilities on campus.

The Athletic Trainers begin treatments and rehabilitation as early as 6:30 a.m. and are available until the last student-athlete is through. There are currently five athletic training facilities on campus. The staff treats out of two primary athletic training rooms, in the Indoor Practice Facility and the Starnes Athletic Training Center, with four other satellite athletic training rooms, located at Tad Smith Coliseum, Gillom Center, Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field and the Basketball Practice Facility.

The IPF and Starnes Center training rooms are stocked with equipment such as stationary bikes, hand weights, therapeutic modalities, and recent technology like underwater treadmills and Biodex testing equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athletes the best care, but also to aid in returning them to competition as quickly and safely as possible. Singletary, though, said the emphasis is on the student-athlete's health, first and foremost.

Ole Miss Sports Medicine has strong working relationships with local physicians and Baptist Memorial Hospital, located less than five minutes from the campus. In addition, specialists from the University's Medical Center are often consulted.

ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the University of Mississippi Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to advance the University's role as a major comprehensive institution of higher learning dedicated to teaching, research, and service. The Department will produce competitive and entertaining athletic teams, by recruiting qualified student-athletes, coaches and staff from diverse backgrounds, providing equal opportunities regardless of ethnicity or gender. The Department will prepare student-athletes to be productive members of society by assisting in their development of academic, athletic, social, and leadership skills within an environment which fosters integrity, sportsmanship, and emotional, physical, and mental well being.

Operating within the principles of sound fiscal management, the Department will sponsor athletic teams which reflect the interest of the citizens of Mississippi and promote enthusiasm, financial support, cohesiveness, and loyalty within the University community. Demonstrating leadership in all decisions which impact the University, the Southeastern Conference, and the National Collegiate Athletics Association, the Department will conduct itself in an ethical and honest manner.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics.

Under Karen Schiferl, the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Academic Support, the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support has made great strides in improving the environment for Ole Miss student-athletes. Schiferl is assisted by three assistant directors, four full-time academic counselors, three learning specialists and numerous tutors and academic mentors.

The mission of the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support is to provide quality developmental and need-based programs to help student-athletes become independent and self-reliant learners. In an environment that promotes student development, the staff provides support for all student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus through graduation. The staff provides resources, experience and knowledge empowering each student-athlete to reach his/her academic, career and personal potential. The OSAAS staff pursues this mission by promoting academic success with integrity, strict adherence to university, SEC and NCAA rules, and a dedication to excellence.

The Ole Miss soccer program has a long history of academic success. The Rebels boast eight Academic All-America selections, including two-time first-team honoree Lindley Beckman (2003 and 2004) and 2009 NSCAA Scholar All-American Danielle Johnson. The Rebels have also been a staple of the NSCAA's Team Academic Award for their outstanding team GPAs over the years.

In addition to Johnson's Scholar All-America recognition in 2009, she was the Ole Miss nominee for the McWhorter Award and earned a postgraduate scholarship. In 2010, Dylan Jordan was named to the Academic All-District First Team. Four Rebels were named to the ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-District teams, including second-teamers Johnson and Kelsey Breathitt and third-team picks Alley Ronaldi and Meredith Snow.

The 2010 SEC Academic Honor Roll was filled with Rebels, including Kelsey Breathitt, Lily Crabtree, Maddie Cunningham, Abbie Curran, Erin Emerson, Alix Hildal, Dylan Jordan, Lacy Key, Mandy McCalla, Courtney Messina, Kendyl Mygatt, Allie Ronaldi, Meredith Snow and Jenna Strother.

With Ole Miss athletics taking its place amongst the best in the nation, the Student-Athlete Academic Support staff hopes that Rebel graduates of today have a great impact in the future of tomorrow.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

Who Is A Prospect?

A prospective student-athlete is defined as an athlete who has begun classes for the ninth grade. However, it is possible for a younger student to be considered a prospect if the institution (or a representative of its athletic interests) provides the student (or family member) benefits not provided to prospects generally.

Who May Contact a Prospect During the Recruiting Process?

All in-person, on and off-campus recruiting contacts with a prospect (or family) are limited to authorized institutional staff members or full-time enrolled students at the institution. All other persons are prohibited from engaging in any personal, telephone or written contact with the prospect (or family) for encouraging participation in the institution's athletics programs.

How and When May a Prospect Be Contacted?

In all sports, a prospect may not be contacted in-person, off-campus until their senior year in high school. Prospects may not receive correspondence from an institution until their junior year in high school (exception: men's basketball - June 15 after sophomore year). Questionnaires and camp brochures may be sent prior to the junior year.

When May a Prospect Visit an Institution's Campus?

Prospects may visit an institution's campus at their own expense ("unofficial visit") and receive complimentary passes to an athletic contest anytime except during "dead periods." Check with the institution for dates. There is no limit to the number of times a prospect may visit a campus at his/her own expense. Prospects may receive an expense paid visit ("official visit") only after they have begun classes for their senior year and have registered with the NCAA Eligibility Center and submitted transcripts and test scores to the institution. Prospects are limited to a maximum of five official visits with no more than one per institution.

What is Considered "Being Recruited?"

A prospect is considered recruited if a coach, staff member or representative of the institution's athletic interest (booster) attempts to persuade a prospect (or family member) to enroll at their institution and participate in the athletics program. A student is considered "recruited" if any of the following actions are taken: 1) the institution provides the prospect with an "official visit" (i.e., expenses paid) to its campus; 2) a coach arranges for an in-person, off-campus (home or prospect's school) encounter with the prospect; 3) receiving more than one telephone call from a coach for recruiting purposes; 4) issuing an NLI or university athletic scholarship.

What Should a Prospect Do During the Recruiting Process?

Prospects should register with the NCAA Eligibility Center during their junior year in high school. Contact your high school guidance counselor or call the NCAA Eligibility Center at (877) 262-1492 for more information. The NCAA publishes "The Guide for the College-Bound Student-Athlete," which may be downloaded from the NCAA website. If you should have any questions, visit the Compliance web page at www.OleMissSports.com or call the University of Mississippi Athletic Compliance Office at (662) 915-1594.

OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

The Ole Miss Soccer Stadium stands as a beacon for success on the Oxford campus. Since the complex was christened on Sept. 28, 1997, in a regionally televised game against Alabama, the Rebels have been victorious in 68 percent of their matches there, posting an impressive 79-32-15 mark.

Helping to provide the perfect environment for collegiate soccer in 2006 was the installation of a state-of-the-art scoreboard and color graphics message board. With seating for over 1,500 spectators, the stadium is located directly behind the Gillom Sports Center, which houses the team's locker room and newly renovated team meeting area, a changing room for officials and the coaches' offices.

The 2002 season was a momentous one for Ole Miss Soccer Stadium, as it was not only the site of the SEC Tournament but also underwent a major facelift. A two-story brick building was constructed, supplying a three-room media area on the top floor and concessions and restrooms on the bottom. The building, coupled with the bricking of the backside of the stands and landscaping all around the complex, make the Rebels' stadium one of the finest and most attractive in the nation. The construction concluded just prior to the SEC Tournament, which was also an overwhelming success. The Rebels' first-round match with Kentucky drew a crowd of 1,588 — the second largest in stadium history. The field received new sod prior to the 2011 season.

In recent years, Ole Miss Soccer Stadium has played host for some of the highest attendances of any UM women's sport. The 2001 season finale against Mississippi State attracted the largest crowd in stadium history, a standing-room-only total of 1,791 for the double-overtime thriller. The stadium has also seen crowds of 1,421 for Notre Dame in 2006, 1,141 for Auburn in 2003, 1,133 for LSU in 1998 and 1,089 for Mississippi State in 2005.

GILLOM SPORTS CENTER AND COMPLEX

Since its opening in July 1997, the Gillom Sports Center has played a major role in the continued rise of Ole Miss women's athletics at regional and national levels of competition.

The building houses offices and locker rooms for the rifle, soccer, softball and volleyball programs, and contains three indoor tennis courts and a championship volleyball court.

Since 1997, the women's tennis program has made nine NCAA Tournament appearances, won the SEC Tournament once and claimed the SEC Western Division title twice. The Rebel soccer program has made four NCAA Tournament appearances and won three SEC West crowns. Volleyball has earned a pair of NCAA Tournament berths, and rifle finished sixth in the 2006 NCAA Championships.

On April 28, 2000, the complex was dedicated as the Gillom Sports Center in honor of Lady Rebel basketball legends Peggie and Jennifer Gillom. The sisters Gillom are the top two scorers in the history of the program.

The facility, which was built on the University's intramural fields on Hathorn Road near Highway 6, is a metal structure with a brick front carrying the theme of several other campus edifices.

Other than the locker rooms and offices, the 54,142 square-foot building contains a training room, a laundry room, two visitors' locker rooms and equipment and team meeting rooms for soccer, softball and volleyball.

Recent upgrades to the soccer team meeting room have added stunning color photo displays, three flat-panel televisions and updated video editing equipment.

The volleyball championship court and tennis courts have lower seating areas, and a mezzanine level that runs across the upper portion of the building for a higher perspective on matches. The volleyball court underwent major renovations for the 2010 season, arranging the space for an even better fan experience.

The 1,500-seat Ole Miss Soccer Stadium, which opened in 1997 and hosted the 2002 SEC Tournament, is located behind the multi-sport facility.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

Among the finest facilities in all of college athletics, the Ole Miss Indoor Practice Facility is the crown jewel in the growing athletics compound surrounding Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

"With the addition of this magnificent indoor facility, we find that Ole Miss athletes and coaches have the opportunity to practice and play games in state-of-the-art facilities, on the finest fields and courts," then-Chancellor Robert Khayat said at the ribbon-cutting ceremony on Nov. 22, 2004.

"They are in a position of being nationally competitive. As we look forward to finding out what is going to happen in athletics at this university and with the university in general, we can move forward knowing that we have provided the infrastructure and facilities that needed to be provided."

Located beside the South End Zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Rebels moved into the spectacular $18 million multi-purpose structure in fall 2004.

The 150,000-square-foot enclosure is a result of UM's Commitment to Excellence in Athletics Campaign, a $35 million initiative to upgrade the university's athletics programs. In addition to the IPF, the campaign has also resulted in a golf facility, renovations to C.M. "Tad" Smith Coliseum and a state-of-the-art track and field complex, which sits just south of the IPF. Also, an endowment has been created to fund scholarships and maintain the new facilities.

Numerous Rebel supporters contributed financially to the construction of the Indoor Practice Facility, including legendary Rebel quarterback Archie Manning. In May 2004, former Ole Miss running back Deuce McAllister donated $1 million toward the building of the facility. The architects of the facility were Ferguson & Associates of Jackson.

FEDEX ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

FedEx Corporation announced on April 14, 2005, a $2.5 million gift over five years to the University of Mississippi to create an academic support center for student-athletes. In May 2007, the vision became reality as the FedEx Student-Athlete Academic Support Center opened its doors to Rebel athletes.

The center provides state-of-the-art computer facilities and space for study halls and tutoring for men and women student-athletes, as well as additional classrooms for all students.

"FedEx has always been a strong supporter of educational initiatives at all levels," said Mike Glenn, executive vice president of marketing development and corporate communications. "This contribution to the University of Mississippi is an extension of our commitment to helping improve the academic resources available to students, and student-athletes in particular."

Glenn said FedEx and Ole Miss are committed to providing a strong academic foundation to enable students to reach their full potential.

The money has been used to renovate a portion of the Starnes Athletic Center—which formerly housed football locker rooms, a weight room and training facilities—next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on All-American Drive. The 22,500-square-foot building now houses the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support, including offices, conference rooms, 20 large and small group tutoring rooms, a large study area, a multi-media classroom, computer lab and 150-seat high-tech auditorium. The project was completed in May 2007 with an approximate cost of $5 million.

In accepting the FedEx gift, university officials said the new center provides an important link in the university's goal to compete at the highest level in every aspect of its intercollegiate programs.

"American public universities are the best in the world largely because of the generosity of American corporations," said then-UM Chancellor Robert Khayat. "FedEx sets the standard for philanthropy by which others are measured. In this case, Ole Miss student-athletes are the primary beneficiaries, but all our students will benefit and, as a result, our entire state benefits."

Athletics Director Pete Boone said the FedEx Academic Support Center plays a valuable role in preparing student-athletes for success after their collegiate playing days are over.

"In recruiting, we make a commitment to young men and women and their parents. We promise to provide a positive environment of support to help them achieve their maximum potential in their academic and athletic pursuits," said Boone. "The FedEx Academic Support Center enables Ole Miss to go beyond that promise. The Center's front-line technology and classroom environment provide our student-athletes one of the best learning environments in the country."

In addition to its latest gift to the University, FedEx supports several endowed scholarship programs, the Whitten Chair in Law, the Lott Leadership Institute, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation and William Faulkner's historic home, Rowan Oak.

STARNES ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

Every aspect of Ole Miss Athletics is geared toward the success of its student-athletes. The Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center provides a valuable role in the development and display of that success.

The multi-purpose Starnes Center has undergone many transformations through the years. It currently houses Ole Miss Sports Medicine, FCA and CHAMPS Life Skills headquarters and includes a 10,000-square-foot weight room and a sizeable memorabilia collection.

Formerly the Doc Knight Field House, the Training Center stands just north of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and within walking distance of Tad Smith Coliseum, Swayze Field and the main athletics office complex.

The primary training room on the Ole Miss campus is used by several Rebel sports. The training area has four offices for the athletic training staff, room for at least 13 treatment tables, six taping stations and countless rehabilitation equipment. It also contains a wet room with a whirlpool that help make up an environment for top-notch care and injury prevention for Rebel athletes.

The facility extends to the east into a similar structure which holds a massive weight room, a lobby, a conference room and offices. Connected to the west end is the FedEx Academic Support Center, a state-of-the-art complex opened in May 2007.

Starnes, the building's benefactor, donated $1 million toward the facility as part of an extensive $2.5 million renovation in 1995. A 1968 Ole Miss graduate, Starnes is president of Tennessee California Express, Inc., a transportation company.

Much of the history and the many accolades of Rebel athletics are displayed in two rooms on the second floor of the Starnes Center that make up Hollingsworth-Manning Hall.

The larger room is divided into four zones, with the North Wing reserved to honor the nine Ole Miss Rebels in the College Football Hall of Fame. The East Wing spotlights the 42 Ole Miss first-team All-Americans as well as Hall of Fame Coach John Vaught and the legacy of Chucky Mullins. The West Wing is reserved for baseball, track, tennis and golf All-Americans as well as Bruiser Kinard, the only player in Ole Miss history inducted into both the College and Professional Football Hall of Fame. The South Zone honors Ole Miss All-Americans in men's and women's basketball as well as C. M. "Tad" Smith, who played and coached at Ole Miss and also served as Athletics Director.

The smaller room of Hollingsworth-Manning Hall is devoted entirely to an impressive memorabilia collection from the family of Ole Miss legend Archie Manning, which includes items of all three sons, Cooper, Peyton and Eli. The focal points of the exhibit are Super Bowl MVP photos of both Peyton and Eli hoisting the Lombardi Trophy.

Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth, an Ole Miss alumnus and general practitioner in Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., joined forces with former Rebel quarterback Archie Manning to establish the recruitment/memorabilia center. It is faithfully maintained and updated by Langston Rogers, Senior Associate Athletics Director Emeritus.

THE GROVE

Regarded as one of the world's top sporting traditions, tailgating on football Saturdays at Ole Miss is one of those activities that every sports fan should take the opportunity to indulge in at some point in their life. Ten acres of lush green grass, watched over by majestic oak trees in the middle of the Ole Miss campus, are transformed from a tranquil picnic spot into tailgating paradise when thousands of football fans crowd into every corner of the land. Weaving through the myriad of red and blue tents, one is bound to encounter a few of the most extravagant set-ups in all of tailgating - fine china, chandeliers, big-screen satellite TVs. Of course, many tents are a bit simpler, but the unique atmosphere still encourages sundresses and high heels for the ladies and coats and ties for the men. Food and drink are abundant. "Hotty Toddy" can always be heard chanted among the trees. Champions walk through it. There is nowhere else like it. It is ... The Grove.

ADMINISTRATION

DR. DANIEL W. JONES | CHANCELLOR

From an early age, Dr. Daniel W. Jones knew his career aspirations revolved around medicine and leadership. And while a physician leading a comprehensive university isn't a common arrangement, Jones' appointment as the 16th chancellor of the University of Mississippi is no surprise to anyone familiar with his record of leadership and achievements at the UM Medical Center in Jackson and the American Heart Association.

Jones became chancellor on July 1, 2009, and oversees the campuses in Oxford, Jackson, Southaven, Tupelo and Grenada.

Vice chancellor for health affairs and dean of the School of Medicine since 2003, Jones served as the Medical Center's chief executive officer, overseeing five schools and the health system. Under his leadership, UMMC restructured its clinical enterprise to create a more agile, market-responsive organization focused on quality, efficiency and clinical leadership. The work resulted in a turnaround in financial performance and selection as one of the Thomson Top 100 Hospitals in America.

Jones' leadership team also expanded the Medical Center's commitment to minority scholarships, rural medicine and the elimination of health disparities. Enrollment of underrepresented medical students increased 80 percent in five years.

They also led a campaign that raised $53 million, expanded the medical school's class size from 100 students to 120 students per class and reorganized the medical faculty clinical practice plan from 17 individual practice groups to a single, unified one, facilitating more efficient management and improved patient care.

Under his watch, the Medical Center's research enterprise has been reinvigorated with completion of the Arthur C. Guyton Research Center, acquisition of funding for a research park and increased research funding.

A native Mississippian, Jones graduated from Mississippi College in 1971, earned his M.D. in 1975 at UMMC and completed his residency in internal medicine there in 1978. He had a private practice in Laurel, then went to Korea as a medical missionary in 1985.

He returned to the UM Medical Center as a faculty member in 1992 and was named the school's Herbert G. Langford Professor of Medicine in 1998. He directed the hypertension division and led many clinical studies funded by the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute of the National Institutes of health. He played a crucial role in the acquisition of funding from NHLBI to create the Jackson Heart Study and was its first principal investigator. As the only large scale study of cardiovascular risk factors in African-Americans, Jones had to overcome the understandable reluctance of African Americans to participate in research and to build consensus among the three participating institutions - Jackson State University, Tougaloo College and UMMC. Neither had ever collaborated in such a massive undertaking.

The new chancellor began volunteering for the American Heart Association 20 years ago and became its national president in 2007-2008. He was one of the early voices in AHA leadership to call attention to the growing problem of childhood obesity and heart disease in women. He was AHA's national spokesperson on high blood pressure.

Jones is married to Lydia Channell Jones, also a Mississippi College graduate. They have two children, Jennifer Jones Flechas of Oxford and Jason Jones of Clinton.

PETE BOONE | ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

In his 13 years as the University of Mississippi's Director of Athletics, Pete Boone has overseen dramatic facility improvements across the athletics department, allowing Ole Miss student-athletes and teams to compete at the highest levels in the nation's most competitive conference.

Boone's personal relationship with Ole Miss runs deep, beginning in 1968 when the Grenada, Miss., native first stepped on the Oxford campus as a center on the Rebel football team, playing first for legendary coach John Vaught and then coach Billy Kinard as he earned three letters (1970-72).

During Boone's 13 years as Director of Athletics, Ole Miss has experienced continued growth from adding sports to his overseeing in excess of $140 million in athletics improvements.

A number of projects are currently in the final planning stages or recently completed as Ole Miss continues to meet the challenges of the 21st century both on and off the field of competition. Underway is a $3 million renovation of the Palmer/Salloum Tennis Center, site of many men's and women's NCAA Regionals and host of the 2012 Women's SEC Tournament. Several major projects are on the horizon with the launching of a capital campaign that includes plans for a new arena, a north end zone expansion of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and other projects.

Under Boone's watch, the athletics department remains committed to young men and women student-athletes and their parents, promising to provide a positive environment of support to help them achieve their maximum potential in their academic and athletic pursuits. The FedEx Student-Athlete Academic Support Center's front-line technology and classroom environment provide Ole Miss student-athletes one of the best learning environments in the country.

While Boone's focus has been to provide student-athletes, coaches and administrative staff with every opportunity to succeed, he has represented Ole Miss and the Southeastern Conference on a number of regional and national committees. In August of 2008, Boone was elected Chairman of the SEC Athletics Directors Committee.

Boone, a 1972 graduate of Ole Miss with a bachelor's degree in banking and finance, is married to the former Scottye Howard of Grenada. The couple has two sons, Taylor and Lexie. Taylor is married to the former Laurel Joachim of Atlanta, Ga. Taylor and Laurel have two future Ole Miss Rebels -- a son, Morgan (9) and a daughter, Pharis Louise (4). Lexie is married to the former Kim Deuel of Binghamton, N.Y.
